

Please do not remove the cross-ownership ban for media businesses.
This will only decrease the number of competing voices in an area. One thing that keeps democracy honest is the availability of competing views.
This may not please the ceos of big media, but it does help keep the public more informed.

Thank you,
M.A.Rodighiero